

Red Rosebud Circle.

This is the name of a new club recently organized in San Angelo by very youthful representatives of some of the leading families. The club idea is one that seems to take possession of the feminine mind with a very strong grip, and even the children feel its magnetic influence, and succumb.

The officers of the new club are as follows: Annalee Harris, president; Rachel Deaton, vice president; Lula B. Adams, secretary; Lola Harris, treasurer. The rest of the members are Lena Anderson, Hazel Nall, Katie Kelly, Lucile Mabson, Effie Nell, Helen Knapp, Jessie Knapp, Etta DeBerry, Itasca Hill, Madeline Taylor, Ruth Johnson, Lula Rau.

These young Misses will doubtless make their club a success. It is intended to blend the literary and social features of club life harmoniously in the Red Rosebud Circle. Among the list of subjects that may be discussed by the circle at an early date occur the following which will prove of deep interest:

Should parents ever be corrected in public?

Which is the best, to spend our money for bon-bons, or to spend it in buying dollies for the heathen?

Question for debate, resolved that boys are a nuisance.

Affirmative, the entire club, negative.

About the first of May a paper upon the relative merits of ice cream and watermelon will be read by a charming little Rosebud who has not lived in San Angelo very long.

It is hoped that the Rosebuds will hold an occasional open meeting to which all their friends will be invited. That the Rosebuds, one and all, may live to blossom into the fragrance and beauty of full blown roses, minus the thorns, is the wish of their friend the newspaper man.

Club Dance Friday.

On last Friday evening an informal hop was enjoyed at the club rooms of the San Angelo Club. Those who took part in it were Mrs. C. W. B. Collins, Mrs. J. C. Marshall, Misses Lela March, Mary Patterson, Oma Wood, Cora and Bella Schoenmann Miss Hadley, Mes. C. Gantt, P. E. West, G. T. Gwin, T. S. Sharpe, John Sims, B. C. Alexander, Murph March, Tom Pulliam, Phil Lee, and W. B. Hunter.

The subject for the prayer meeting at the Methodist church tonight, is "Present Salvation."

J. O. Tillery and bride arrived in San Angelo Monday night from Arlington, where they were wedded last Sunday. Mr. Tillery is the popular book keeper of Wm. Cameron & Co. Mr. and Mrs. Tillery are at present boarding with Mrs. Mary Lewis.

BE WISE IN TIME.

Many parents do not know that their child is sickly and cross and fretful, simply because they fail to give it some of that splendid remedy called Mother's Worm Syrup to kill and expel from its little stomach, and bowels the worms that are the cause of its distress. Worms have brought many a little loved one to a bed of sickness and to its grave, that a 25 cent bottle of this remedy would have saved.

Elegant Cut Glass Punch Set to be Sold at W. E. Heald's by a Novelty method.

Things are never dull at the store of W. E. Heald, the leading jeweler. The great Bonanza Jewelry sale has come and gone, and was a grand and complete success. Over 500 packages were sold, and so well were all pleased that there was a perfect clamor for more and Mr. Heald has been urged and importuned for another. But "variety is the spice of life" and most people want a change, and so he has provided it in the following manner:

In the show window is an elegant punch set of the richest and most magnificent cut glass, and composed of fifteen pieces, 1 mammoth bowl, 12 pretty glasses and an elegant plateau, in the form of a circular mirror encased in silver.

This set was placed on sale a few days ago at $75, a price which it is easily worth and a bargain at that. But for every day, except Sunday, it remains unsold in the window it will be sold at $1 less. Today it is only $68. Thursday it will be $67, etc. Here is an opportunity to make a lifetime purchase that will make a fitting adornment for any home, "a thing of beauty and a joy forever"—and its going to be sold. So, if you want it, don't delay too long, for while every day takes a dollar off the price it also multiplies the number of those who will want it. So, now is the time, and Heald's is the place, always.

Endeavorer's Sociable.

The Senior Endeavor Society of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church met at the home of the pastor, Rev. A. L. Barr, Friday evening and after a short prayer proceeded to have a most enjoyable season of sociability.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Wynne, Misses Beatrice Hodges, Minnie Acton, Pearl Hillis, Anna Burns, Florence Dearing, Jessie Walling, Deda Bell, Alma Johnson, Maude Mayfield, Mollie Butts, Alice Windrow, Maude Hartmond, Bessie Renick, Josie Renick, Frankie Arozana, Lou Lard.

Messrs Will Blakeney, Elmer Hodges, Boudie Atterbury, Louis Ellis, Mather Johnson, Roy Ogden, Ben McLendon, Rollin Windrow, Jessie Arozana, Burnie Ligon, Henry Probst, Earnest Brumley.

Refreshments were served consisting of cake lemonade, bananas and other fruits, and all present spent a most pleasant evening.

Talbert Stites

Rev. A. T. Talbert and miss Ida Stites were very quietly married Tuesday afternoon at the residence of Rev. F. M. Masters in San Angelo.

Mrs. Talbert, is the daughter of J. T. Stites, and a most estimable young lady, and has been a leader in the young people's societies of the Baptist church. She will prove a most worthy helpmeet to her husband in his ministerial work.

Rev. A. T. Talbert is a young preacher of more than ordinary promise who has spent the last few years in missionary work in West Texas. All who know the young people wish them happiness in their wedded life.

Knickerbocker News.

Knickerbocker, Texas.
Feb. 22, 1902.

Editor PRESS.

It has been some months since your paper had any notes from this thriving embryo metropolis. We are not all dead down this way, and we are not asleep. While "the world do move" at San Angelo it also moves here, and we eat, drink, work, play, fight, and hope about as people who live in bigger places, and ride on automobiles. A Teacher's Institute was held here today and quite a large crowd was in attendance. One of the most enjoyable features of this educational meeting was the big basket dinner provided by the hospitable people of Knickerbocker. If any went hungry it was because their modesty did not permit their getting in range of a call to dinner.

Today, being Washington's birthday, was celebrated by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tweedy, who entertained the Knickerbocker Camp of Woodmen of the World at an elaborate dinner, elegant in its appointments and delightful in its enjoyments as are all of Mrs. Tweedy's affairs. Some twenty Berry Duncan, George Bodry, Will Johnson, Bob Shelton, James Beck, Jessie Welburn, Andrew Beck, Ed Beck.

Snap, goodnight and other games were indulged in until the town marshal came over and told Will Johnson it was tomorrow when the merry party broke up, after paying due respect to some elegant cake provided for their refreshment.

Two young men in this town whose names begin with J. have a wonderful similarity in taste when it comes to girls.

There will be a considerable cotton crop pitched, in this neck of the woods, this season. Jim Garrett has already broken about 50 acres of the old Garrett and Levy farm to plant in cotton and cane.

Joe Smith will plant thirty or forty acres, and many others will plant big crops.

Jeff Moore and John Rount, two prominent Crockett county officials passed through here Thursday en route home from San Angelo.

Several people have remarked on the improvement in the PRESS during the last few weeks.

The Ongman Lectures.

The Ongman Lectures on March 7, 8 at the Baptist church subject "The Siege of Peking" colored illustrations and moving pictures.

Mr. Ongman enters his fifth season with that energy and conscientious effort toward good work so characteristic of him in the past. True to his purpose he has come with some new offering each year. His latest subject selected, "The Siege of Peking," is a most timely one. The atrocities of the Chinese Boxers and arrogance of the Dowager Empress have filled the heart of the civilized world with righteous indignation.

Mr. Ongman comes before his many friends and patrons with the story gathered from the most trustworthy sources and with beautiful colored illustrations and moving pictures, taken on the field of action.

Mr. Ongman was never in better voice than he is today, and the indications are that his earnest efforts to make his Fifth Season the most interesting, enjoyable and profitable one to the public will be realized.

Since the PRESS was issued last week, Dr. C. E. Mays has been confined to his bed with pneumonia. We are pleased to say his condition is reported to be considerably improved as we go to press.

One of San Angelo's prominent business men, who is thought to be strictly on the quiet, a candidate for matrimony, was seen talking very earnestly to one of our preachers yesterday.

Mr. J. I. Walker, traveling salesman for the San Angelo Marble Works, returned Thursday from Rock Springs, and neighboring points, where he has been on professional business.

A reunion of easterners took place Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Boyd north of town. A party composed of Mrs. A. H. Weatherly, Mrs. W. J. Sanders, mother and two children, Mr. T. L. Clark, Wells Roby, Albert Boyd and Miss Charlie Clark were the participants. Dinner was served, the peculiarities of the country discussed and a most pleasant day spent altogether.

The PRESS job office turned out a brief for Wright & Wynn, in a suit wherein the appellant is trying to defeat a land title acquired under the new tax sale law. The case was tried in Menard county, and judgment was rendered there for the party who purchased the land at a sheriff's sale for taxes. So far as we know, this is the first suit to be carried to the court of appeals which involves a title acquired under the new tax law, and the outcome will be watched with considerable interest, as a large amount of land is held now under similar title, and if the titles are not good in law, the legislature will be compelled to provide a law that will give a man good title to land sold for taxes, or there will be no way to enforce the collection of taxes.

Deafness Cannot be Cured.

by local application as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when that is entirely closed deafness is the result, and, unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give $100 for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.
